

Dear all members of CIU family;

I hope you all are doing well under this critical circumstances. I do appreciate your cooperation in dealing with this unforeseen and unpredictable situation. Our CITS dept under the supervision and direct action of Mr. Mostafizur Rahman Chowdhury with my instruction working all the time to support our faculty for online teaching, updating ciu webpage and facebook account. I thank our faculty members to pick up online options available at CIU to continue their course instructions. All our administrative officers whenever and whatever is required they are doing their jobs and thank you all.

Please stay home, try to release your pressure by enjoying the company of your family members and keeping in touch with friends and relatives by phone. Try to meditate and relax.

May God bless you all, stay safe and protected.
